

JUDGE ADVOCATE'S REPORT

Bishop Higgins, Monsignor Coyle, Commander Crawford, National Officers and Fellow Veterans:

I have provided legal advice this quarter on a variety of matters, including the following:

1. Advised several Posts concerning issues related to vacancies in officer positions;
2. Continuing assistance to National and a Department with real estate and trademark issues. My former law firm, Jones Day, is providing pro bono legal advice;
3. Advised the Commander concerning potential issues related to letters to the President;
4. Advised the Commander and Executive Director concerning the respective roles of the Directors and the Executive Committee; and
5. Revised listing agreement for headquarters building and dealt with former broker and proposed new broker in connection with issues related to property.

Respectfully submitted,

Brian F. Toohey
Judge Advocate

2 March 2017